

What is actually conserved along the nonlinear constant-cement ridge?

Local exponential versus factored coordinate

Upstream states are not invariant

Downstream elastic states remain nearly invariant

